Several tow boats passed down yesseveral tow loads passed down yes-terday with large fleets of coal barges loaded in tow. The floating barges will soon begin to follow, and the large amount of coal awaiting a rise at Pittes burgh will rapidly be sent down the river. This is a very fortunate rise— much loss and suffering has been saved by it.

Police Count.-In the police court yesterday morning Charles Morris, the yesterday morning Cuaries alorris, the black boy, about whom a good deal has been said, was arraigned for stabbing 50 GROSS FLASKS, Half Pint, Pint and William Wilson. From the evidence it 5 Quart, Pikes Peak pattern, received by P.C. HILDESTH & BRO. William Wilson. From the evidence it seemed that Morris is a bad character,

MORE ROBBERIES,-Yesterday morn ing before day light some thief or thieves, to whom as yet no clue has been obtained, broke into the shoe shop of Mr. Benjamin Merge, on Main street, a few doors north of the Bridge corner, and robbed it of about twenty-five or thirty dollars, worth of goods,

The same party, it is supposed, about the same time, broke into the cellar of Mr. P. E. Zinn's confectionary and attempted to effect an entrance into the store room above. This they were unable to do on account of the trap door being securely fastened down. They got into the cellar by prying off a clasp and breaking a lock. Fortunately they controlled for their trapple in the cellar trapple in the cellar cells. got nothing for their trouble in the cellar, and left the premises withou lar, and left the pressure booty.

These robberies are getting very frequent, and bear the marks of an increasing boldness with each successive attempt. Something must be done to put an end to it, and we see no remedy other than a night police. By this means only do we think this lawlessness can be ended. A lew efficient policemen could do much towards breaking it up speedily.

No LOCAL NEWS .- Our local news this morning is scarce. There was nothing much doing yesterday outside of the Thanksgiving observances, and as a consequence we are short of items.
